

Combined meeting of IAIN Corresponding Member the RNT Foundation* and IAIN Full Member the (US) Institute of Navigation (ION) (DC Section) 27 June 2017/ 1800 to 2030

An evening in USS Constellation (managed by Historic Ships) in Baltimore's Inner Harbor.

The evening will include:

Guided tours of USS Constellation

Reception with heavy hors d'oeuvres, wine, and beer

Presentation by the Father of GPS, Dr Brad Parkinson

Opportunity to meet leading members of the PNT community from around the world.

Attendees are invited to the public meeting of the US PNT Advisory Board over the following days (28 & 29 June) at the Marriot Inner Harbor Camden Yards.

27 June Itinerary:

1800 Commence reception, heavy hors d'oeuvres, beer, wine, soda

1820 & 1840 Complimentary guided tours of the ship

1910-1935 Presentation by Dr Brad Parkinson

1935-1945 Q&A with Dr Parkinson

1945-1955 Business meetings for ION and RNTF

1955-2030 Continue reception

Deadline for RSVP 20 June 2017

Directions: USS Constellation is located on Pier 1 at 301 East Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

Parking: Historic Ships in Baltimore does not have onsite parking, however parking is available in garages and open lots around the Inner Harbor.

Historic Ships' visitors can receive discounted parking at the Inner Harbor Garage, located at 400 E. Pratt Street, by purchasing in advance (see here: <https://rntfnd.org/events/> ).

*The Resilient Navigation and Timing Foundation in the US is a non-profit, public benefit educational and scientific charity. See also: <https://rntfnd.org/>