ACI's Arctic Shipping Summit is moving to Hamburg, Germany for its 13th gathering in the series and will take on a new look for December 2018, it is reported.

ACI are bringing together stakeholders from all parts of the Arctic to discuss their involvement in the ever-changing Northern Shipping Route.

The two day conference will see an assembly of companies and organisations such as coast guards, senior Arctic government officials, shipping companies, LNG projects, lawyers, P&I Clubs, arctic researchers and lecturers and more. This is expected to allow for an interactive and open conference with much networking and discussion.

The standard delegate rate is £1,595 (+VAT) which includes attendance of the two day conference, all speakers' presentations, lunches and networking opportunities as well as documentation from the event.

Organisers ACI are offering £320 early bird discount until 31 July 2018, which is reducing the price to £1,275 (+VAT) only.

VAT is not applicable if a delegate is a non-UK resident business or organisation. However, there is a need to provide the applicant company's VAT/TVA number or company registration number in order that VAT / TVA is not applied to the transaction.
