

News from IHMA

Change of Secretary

The International Harbour Masters' Association (www.harbourmaster.org) reports that Sabrina Delelis has been appointed as Secretary of the organisation in succession to Anne Carnegie who has departed after six years in the post.

With consultative status at IMO the International Harbour Masters' Association (IHMA) is the professional body for those responsible for the safe, secure, efficient and environmentally sound conduct of marine operations in port waters. Harbour masters in more than 50 countries make up the membership.

In June this year London was the venue for the 11th IHMA Congress at which Captain Allan Gray, Harbour Master of the Port of Fremantle, Western Australia, was elected President.

The 12th Congress will be held in Hobart, Tasmania from 23-26 March, 2020.

For further information contact:

Secretary.ihma@harbourmaster.org

Telephone: +44 (0)1737 201482

11.09.18

