ISC '19 Invitation to submit abstracts

IFSMA, the International Federation of Shipmasters' Associations, and CMMI, the Company of Master Mariners of India, cordially invite all members of the maritime / marine scientific and professional community to submit abstracts for oral or poster presentations at ISC '19, the International Shipmasters' Congress 2019, which is scheduled to be held from 25 to 27 September 2019 at the Stein Auditorium, India Habitat Centre, New Delhi, India addressing the theme Future Skills Requirements for a Digitized Maritime Industry.

ISC '19 is organized by the International Federation of Shipmasters' Associations (IFSMA) in co-operation with the Company of Master Mariners of India (CMMI) and enjoys the kind support of the Indian Ministry of Shipping, the Indian Maritime University, the HSB | City University of Applied Sciences and the Institute of Marine Engineering, Science and Technology.

IFSMA is most grateful to HE Kitack Lim, the Secretary General of IMO, who kindly agreed to be the patron of the 2019 International Shipmasters' Congress.

The setting of the ISC '19 Congress venue provides a unique meeting place for high-level interdisciplinary exchange of newest research and effective networking.

ISC '19 Congress Topics

The International Shipmasters' Congress 2019 intends to provide details on the skills needed both ashore and onboard ships in order to assure a safe, secure and environment friendly operation of any future digitized maritime systems.

ISC '19 will therefore provide technical sessions as well as a poster session taking a holistic view on the following topics related to the ongoing digitization of the maritime industry:

- Conceptual Aspects
- Technological Aspects
- Operational Aspects
- Human Resource Aspects
- Safety and Security Aspects
- Legal Aspects
