

The ION Parkinson Award

Dr Lakshay Narula

The Bradford W Parkinson Award is awarded annually to an outstanding graduate student in the field of Global Navigation Satellite Systems (GNSS).

This award, which honours Dr Parkinson (pictured right) for his leadership in establishing both the US Global Positioning System and the Satellite Division of the Institute of Navigation, includes a personalized plaque and a $2,500 honorarium.

Any ION member who is a graduate student completing a degree programme with an emphasis in GNSS technology, applications, or policy is eligible for the award.

ION wishes to thank the altruistic experts who served on this year's selection committee.
