

Telespazio UK appoints new Head of Navigation

Martin Bransby joined Telespazio UK in August as the Head of Navigation, with responsibility for delivering activities focussed on robust, resilient and alternative (to GNSS) Positioning, Navigation and Timing (PNT) services.

He was previously with the General Lighthouse Authorities of the United Kingdom and Ireland* where he was Head of Research and Development for sixteen years.

According to Telespazio he joined at a time the company is strengthening and developing its Navigation and PNT portfolio, and his domain experience in maritime brings an additional dimension to Telespazio's Navigation and PNT business.

He is a Chartered Engineer, Fellow, Trustee and Council member of the Royal Institute of Navigation, and an Associate Fellow of the Nautical Institute.
